No, he's not communicating at all. I've made my presence known in the REOC.....had it out with Ronnie and John Martin. I've briefed Verne, Troy and James on the lack of communication. They told me yesterday that I'd have a listing from the REOC by COB yesterday. Do I have it, nope! So, I let them know again this morning that I haven't received a list.

Everything is documented! Its absolutely amazing how just down right stubborn they are being. I added myself to the REOC, Mike Torres activated me upon my request, and now I'm able to work overtime. All on my decision, because no one else would. Kenneth is scarce up there. Rarely up there, because he doesn't know what he's doing. He cant answer their questions about personnel deployment status.

So frustrating and maddening because they know better. Is Kenneth Shewmake communicating with you at all? Have you mentioned to Verne/Troy ? They probably don't give a rats ass either, sadly.

No...it's a nightmare! NO communication! I haven't received a list of those who've deployed...nor who's set to deploy. Its absolutely ridiculous!

Yes, sounds good. David will be back next week so I'll have to see which day would be best for me to slip out etc. Things calming down a little for you on the GKM response? David advised things are coming together more – better organization at the JIC now that HQ personnel have arrived to run it. How many people have deployed that you know of?

Shes in room 18A. I just asked the team if they wanted to go visit her sometime next week? You want to join us?
